The College Strategic Planning Committee is the group responsible for developing the first step of the planning process each year. This group reviews the data including the district strategic plan, environmental scan, college accomplishments from the last planning cycle, and data on student learning outcomes and institutional effectiveness. The group reviews the mission, vision, and values of the college. This group uses this review as the basis for setting the college goals and outcome measures for the next cycle.